

AHA Coding Clinic® for HCPCS and ICD Add-ons

Online Medical Coding Software

The American Hospital Association (AHA) Coding Clinic® Add-ons are the official source of coding advice to supplement HCPCS and ICD coding and reporting guidelines when you need more clarity or direction. With this add-on functionality, you can search using keywords, code or even by newsletter quarter and year. You also have access to view all AHA Coding Clinic® newsletters in their entirety. There simply is no faster and easier way to search the full library of AHA Coding Clinic content.

- AHA Coding Clinic® for HCPCS Add-on: Provides a complete archive of the HCPCS coding clinics to support you in assigning the most appropriate code to avoid claim denials.
- AHA Coding Clinic® for ICD Add-on (ICD-10-CM/PCS, ICD-9 Vol. 1 and Vol. 3): Provides a complete archive of the ICD coding clinics to support you in assigning the most appropriate code to avoid claim denials and various research projects.

Key features and benefits

- Optum exclusive feature: Official AHA Coding Clinic® advice at the code level. Each quarterly article is thoroughly reviewed by a live subject-matter expert and organized by subject. Each subject is then assigned to literal codes and terms as well as referenced procedures within the subject.
- Optum exclusive feature: Access any coding clinic in its entirety. Users no longer are limited to subjects associated with codes. Users can now search by quarter, year, etc., and see full articles with all services available in each publication.
- Search by newsletter month/year, keyword, code, etc. Whether you are using Optum proprietary CodeLogic™ to find a code, or using our unique search functionality to find information specific to the AHA Coding Clinic® content for a particular diagnosis code, you will be able to easily access the content for any code, within many locations in RevenueCyclePro.com and EncoderPro.com.
- Access years of newsletters, publications and questions. There are literally hundreds of volumes of content, all easily searchable by code/keyword, and we add to the library each quarter with the latest coding clinics and quizzes from the AHA. Users of this add-on always have access to the most current AHA information and to volumes of historical AHA content. No other online resource provides access to this valuable AHA content like Optum.
